Subchapter C. RESPONSIBILITIES OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES DURING EMERGENCIES

- Sec.
3.21. Purpose.
3.22. Policy.
3.23. Procedures.
3.24. General responsibilities.
3.25. Specific responsibilities.

Source

The provisions of this Subchapter C adopted October 22, 1976, effective October 23, 1976, 6 Pa.B. 2640, unless otherwise noted.

§ 3.21. Purpose.

The purpose of this subchapter is to assign, in accordance with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Services Act of 1978 (P. L. 1332) emergency management responsibilities to Commonwealth departments and agencies for the mitigation of, preparedness for, response to and recovery from natural and man-made emergencies in the Commonwealth.

The provisions of this § 3.22 adopted October 22, 1976, effective October 23, 1976, 6 Pa.B. 2640; amended September 5, 1980, effective September 6, 1980, 10 Pa.B. 3571. Immediately preceding text appears at serial page (41418).

§ 3.23. Procedures.

(a) Heads of agencies tasked with emergency management responsibilities shall designate one or more emergency representatives and shall insure that assigned responsibilities are fulfilled. Persons designated as emergency representatives shall have authority to act for the agency during emergencies.

(b) Agencies shall develop emergency plans for accomplishment of assigned emergency management responsibilities which shall be in accordance with and in support of the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Plan.

(c) Agency emergency plans shall be filed with the Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency and shall be maintained current by the originating agency. The Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency will periodically review agency emergency plans and suggest or require revisions.

(d) The Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency shall furnish agency emergency representatives with such information, assistance and training as necessary to accomplish assigned emergency management responsibilities. The Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency shall arrange for liaison between agency emergency representatives and appropriate Federal agencies having emergency management responsibilities.

The provisions of this § 3.23 adopted September 5, 1980, effective September 6, 1980, 10 Pa.B. 3571.

§ 3.24. General responsibilities.

(a) Commonwealth departments and agencies shall be responsible for emergency management activities for Commonwealth offices and installations as follows:

(1) General protection. Develop emergency action plans for fire, flood, evacuation or other possible emergencies to protect personnel, property and essential records.

(2) Training. Conduct ongoing programs to familiarize employees with emergency procedures and to train selected agency emergency representatives in emergency responsibilities.

(3) Major incident reporting. Establish procedures for immediate reporting of major emergencies and for summary reporting of deaths, injuries, property damage or other disaster related occurrences.

(4) Disaster analysis. Develop procedures for the analysis of disaster effects for that segment of the economy or population that is the area of concern of the agency, to include the conduct of economic, social or psychological studies.

(5) Tests and exercises. Conduct periodic tests or exercises evaluating the effectiveness of agency emergency plans and procedures and make modifications or improvements based on the evaluations.

(b) Selected Commonwealth departments and agencies shall be assigned specific emergency management responsibilities in the following areas of activity, in addition to normal day-to-day activities:

(1) Mitigation activities. In addition to or in conjunction with the administration of ongoing agency programs and services, the listed office or agency may be assigned specific responsibilities for activities or programs that will reduce the severity or prevent the occurrence of disasters.

(2) Preparedness activities. In addition to the conduct of planning and organizational work essential to the discharge of responsibilities assigned elsewhere, the listed office or agency may be assigned specific responsibilities for activities that will enhance the capability of the Commonwealth to respond to disasters.

(3) Emergency response activities. In addition to the performance of normal functions on a day-to-day basis, the listed office or agency may be assigned specific responsibilities for activities to support Commonwealth disaster operations as dictated by actual needs.

(4) Recovery activities. As an essential part of the overall disaster relief effort, the listed office or agency may be assigned specific responsibilities for activities or programs that will support or accelerate immediate and long-term recovery of disaster stricken communities of the Commonwealth.
