This chapter applies to applicants, participants and their authorized representatives, in pursuing appeals from decisions that adversely impact upon the participation of applicants and participants in the WIC Program.

§ 1111.2. Notification of appeal rights.

(a) At the time of the denial of an application to become a participant, removal from the WIC Program as a participant, or placement on a waiting list to become a participant, the local agency shall inform in writing the adult applicant or participant, or the parent or guardian of a child or infant applicant or participant, of the right to appeal the decision, of the method by which an appeal may be filed, and that any positions or arguments on behalf of the applicant or participant may be presented personally or by an authorized representative, such as a relative, friend, legal counsel or other spokesperson. The expiration of the participant's certification period occurs automatically and is not appealable.

(b) The local agency shall use forms provided by the Department to provide notice of appeal rights to the adult applicant or participant, or the parent or guardian of an infant or child applicant or participant.

§ 1111.3. Appeal of a local agency decision.

(a) An appeal is any clear expression by the applicant, participant or authorized representative, that the decision of the local agency is contested and that an opportunity to challenge the decision and to present the case of the applicant or participant to a higher authority is desired. The Department or local agency will not limit or interfere with the freedom of the applicant, participant or authorized representative to appeal the decision and will provide whatever assistance is necessary to reduce an oral appeal to writing.

(b) When an appeal is made orally, the local agency shall docket it as being filed when the local agency receives the oral communication.

§ 1111.4. Time for appeal of a local agency decision.

The applicant, participant or authorized representative shall appeal within 90 days after the date the local agency mails or delivers to the adult applicant or participant, or parent or guardian of an infant or child applicant or participant, written notice of the action to deny or terminate benefits under the WIC Program. An appeal is timely filed if it is received by the local agency within the 90-day period.
