The provisions of this Chapter 8 adopted November 16, 1994, effective January 1, 1995; amended April 12, 1996, effective April 13, 1996, 26 Pa.B. 1677, 24 Pa.B. 5835, unless otherwise noted. Immediately preceding text appears at serial page (192901).

Rule 801. Emergency Relief.

(A) The Court may issue an interim order granting suspension prior to notice or a hearing. In determining whether to issue an interim order granting suspension and whether notice or hearing should be required, the Court may act on the basis of averments of the pleadings and such other evidence as the Court may require.

(B) An interim order granting suspension issued without notice or hearing shall expire unless a hearing on the continuance of the order is held within 10 days after the granting of the order or within such other time as the parties may agree or as the Court upon cause shown shall direct.

(C) After a hearing, the Court may dissolve, continue or modify the interim order of suspension.

(D) Any party may move at any time to dissolve or modify an order granted under this Rule.

Official Note: This rule is derived from former interim Rule 31.

Adopted May 31, 1994, effective May 31, 1994.
