TRANSFERS OF EXPERIENCE RECORDS

§ 63.1. Successors-in-interest.
   (a) Comparisons. A successor employer who, under the provisions of section 301(d)(1) of the Law (43 P. S. § 781(d)(1)), has made application for the transfer of the whole or any appropriate part of the experience record and reserve account balance of a preceding employer shall be considered as continuing essentially the same business activity as his predecessor only if the Bureau finds that the anticipated employment risk of the succeeding employer with respect to such factors as unemployment has a direct relationship to the employment experience of the preceding employer. The determination shall be made by comparing the respective employers in matters such as the nature of the enterprises, the number of individuals employed by each and the wages paid or estimated to be paid to the employees.

(b) Information required. The successor employer shall submit whatever information the Bureau may request for the purpose of making its determination pursuant to subsection (a).

(c) Disapproval of applications. Whenever the Bureau finds that the anticipated employment risk of the successor is not substantially comparable to that of the predecessor for whose experience record and reserve account balance the successor has applied, his application shall be disapproved.

§ 63.1a. Determining common ownership, control or management.

For purposes of determining whether an employer was owned, controlled or managed by its successor-in-interest, whether an employer owned, controlled or managed its successor-in-interest, or whether an employer and its successor-in-interest were owned, controlled or managed by the same interest or interests under section 301(d)(1)(B) of the law (43 P. S. § 781(d)(1)(B)), common ownership, control, management or a combination thereof that exists at the time of the transfer of organization, trade, business or workforce will be disregarded if it commences immediately before the transfer and during a series of nearly contemporaneous business transactions culminating in the transfer.

§ 63.2. Part transfers of organization, trade or business.

(a) Applicability. This section applies to part transfers of an organization, trade or business that occurred before July 1, 2005.

(b) Wage ratios. When an application for part transfer of an employer’s experience record and reserve account balance has been approved, or where such a transfer has occurred as provided in section 301(d)(1)(B) of the law (43 P. S. § 781(d)(1)(B)), the Department will determine the ratio that the wages paid during the last 3 completed calendar years prior to the date of the transfer, in that part of the organization, bears to all wages paid by the predecessor in the corresponding period. If the part which is transferred has been in existence for a period of less than 3-calendar years, wages paid during that period shall be used to determine the ratio.
(c) Application of ratio. The wage ratio shall be used as the basis to reduce the reserve account of the predecessor and to establish the reserve account of the successor-in-interest, as follows:

1. Apply the ratio to the reserve account of the predecessor beginning with the fiscal year in which wages were first paid in that part of the organization, trade or business for which records were transferred, and ending with the date on which the transfer occurred.
2. Transfer the amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (1) from the experience record and reserve account balance of the predecessor to that of the successor-in-interest.

(d) Benefit paid subsequent to transfer. When an application for part transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of an employer is filed and approved, benefits paid after the date of transfer based on wages paid before the date of transfer, in that part of the organization, trade or business transferred, shall be charged to the experience record and reserve account of the successor-in-interest.

The provisions of this § 63.2 has been superseded by the act of June 15, 2005 (P. § 63.3. Required forms and time limits for applications.

(a) An application for the transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of a predecessor under the provisions of section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law (43 P. S. § 781(d)(1)(A)) shall be filed in the manner prescribed by the Department and containing the information that the Department requires. The application shall be signed by both the predecessor and the successor-in-interest.

(b) An application for the transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of a predecessor, either in whole or in part, shall be filed within the time allowed under section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law.

(c) An application for the transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of a predecessor that is filed beyond the time allowed under section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law is deemed to have been filed timely when the sole business of the successor-in-interest is that which the successor-in-interest acquires from the predecessor in a total transfer of the predecessor’s business, and the successor-in-interest, through error or inadvertence, continues to file contribution reports and pay contributions under the account number of the predecessor and at the rate determined by the Department to apply to the predecessor.

§ 63.4. Disapproval of applications for delinquency.

If an application for transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of a predecessor either in whole or in part, is filed and the predecessor is delinquent in the payment of contributions, interest or penalties due on wages paid by the predecessor as of the date the business was transferred, the Department will disapprove the application if the delinquency is not paid within 30 days of the request for payment by the Department.

ASSIGNMENT OF CONTRIBUTION RATES

§§ 63.11—63.14. [Reserved].

Source

The provisions of these §§ 63.11—63.14 amended October 22, 1971, 1 Pa.B. 2015; reserved June 17, 2011, applies to transfers of organization, trade, business or workforce under section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law (43 P.S. § 781(d)(1)(A)) that occur on or after June 18, 2011, effective June 18, 2011, 41 Pa.B. 3094. § 63.15. Determination under combined experience provisions.

If a successor-in-interest applies for a transfer of the experience record and reserve account balance of a predecessor, in whole or in part, under section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law (43 P.S. § 781(d)(1)(A)), the Department will combine the experience of the predecessor and the experience of the successor-in-interest, if any, for the purpose of determining the contribution rate of the successor-in-interest. The earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience under section 301(d)(1)(A) of the law will apply to the contribution rate of the successor-in-interest will be determined in accordance with this section.

(1) If the successor-in-interest files its application for a transfer of experience prior to the expiration of the rate appeal period for a calendar year, the year in which the application is filed is the earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience will apply.

(2) If the successor-in-interest files a timely application for review and redetermination of its contribution rate, and files its application for a transfer of experience within 30 days after the Department notifies the successor-in-interest that an application for a transfer of experience is required, the year for which the application for review and redetermination of contribution is filed is the earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience will apply.
(3) If the successor-in-interest files its application for a transfer of experience after the expiration of the rate appeal period for a calendar year, the calendar year following the year in which the application is filed is the earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience will apply.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), the earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience will apply is the year in which the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force occurred, if the successor-in-interest files its application for a transfer of experience within 90 days after the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force and any of the following apply:

   (i) The successor-in-interest did not pay wages covered by the law prior to the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force.

   (ii) The successor-in-interest most recently paid wages covered by the law prior to the year in which the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force occurred, and the reserve account of the successor-in-interest is terminated in accordance with section 302(d) of the law (43 P.S. § 782(d)) as of the computation date for that year.

   (iii) The successor-in-interest most recently paid wages covered by the law prior to the year in which the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force occurred, and the reserve account of the successor-in-interest is not terminated in accordance with section 302(d) of the law as of the computation date for that year.

(5) If the earliest calendar year for which a combination of experience applies to the contribution rate of the successor-in-interest is the year in which the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force occurred, and paragraph (4)(i) or (ii) applies to the successor-in-interest, the rate of the successor-in-interest for the year in which the transfer of organization, trade, business or work force occurred is the rate of the predecessor for that year.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1)—(5), the experience record and reserve account balance acquired from the predecessor may not affect the contribution rate of the successor-in-interest for any period prior to the date on which the transfer of organization, trade, business or workforce occurs.

APPLICATIONS FOR REVIEW AND REDETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES

§ 63.21. Notification of rate and prerequisites for applications for review and redetermination.

(a) For purposes of section 301(e)(2) and (j) of the law (43 P.S. § 781(e)(2) and (j)), an employer is not notified of its rate of contribution for a calendar year until the Department issues a Contribution Rate Notice to the employer.

(b) The Department may consider an application for review and redetermination of contribution rate filed under section 301(e)(2) of the law only if it meets the following conditions:

(1) It is filed within the time specified in section 301(e)(2) of the law.

(2) The reasons set forth by the employer contain factual statements, not mere generalities, showing specifically where the contribution rate or reserve account balance is incorrect. The Department may not consider any factual or legal reason that the employer fails to assert in its application for review and redetermination.

§ 63.22. Supporting data.

Employers who wish to file an application for review and redetermination of contribution rate shall furnish supporting data as follows:

(1) To contest a ruling of insufficient experience, the employer shall submit information to show that his employer experience record meets the eligibility requirements of section 301.1(b) of the law (43 P.S. § 781.1(b)) for a rate of less than the standard rate provided in section 301(a)(1) or (3) of the law (43 P.S. § 781(a)(1) and (3)), whichever is applicable.

(2) To contest a contribution rate assigned under section 301(a)(2) of the law, the employer shall submit information to show that it filed all reports establishing the amount of contributions and showing the amount of wages paid for calendar quarters through the second quarter of the preceding calendar year, and that it paid all contributions, penalties and interest due on wages paid to the end of the second quarter of the preceding calendar year.

(3) To contest a contribution rate assigned under section 301(a)(2.1) of the law, the employer shall submit information to show that it filed the reports required under section 315(a)(1), (2) and (3) of the law (43 P.S. § 715(a)(1), (2) and (3)).

(4) To contest the accuracy of any figures shown on the Contribution Rate Notice, the employer shall submit information obtained from his records to substantiate the alleged discrepancy.

§ 63.23. Unacceptable reasons.

(a) The Department will not approve an application for review and redetermination of contribution rate based on the following reasons:

(1) Questions of eligibility. Claimants who caused the benefit charges were ineligible to receive unemployment compensation.

(i) Questions of eligibility for compensation shall be resolved conclusively under sections 501—512 of the law (43 P.S. §§ 821—832) and § 65.63 (relating to filing of appeals).

(ii) Appeals raising questions of eligibility for compensation shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed in the law and this subpart. (For detailed instructions, see Form UC-44F, Notice of Financial Determination, which is mailed to base-year employers at the time the Department makes the financial determination on the application for benefits by the claimant.

(2) Claimants who caused benefit charges. Claimants who caused benefit charges were separated from the applicant due to being discharged for willful misconduct connected with their work or due to leaving work without good cause attributable to their employment.

(i) Questions as to the right to relief from charges for these reasons shall be resolved conclusively under section 302(a) of the law (43 P. S. § 782(a)) and §§ 63.31—63.37 (relating to relief from benefit charges).

(ii) Requests raising these questions shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed in the law and this subpart. (For detailed instructions, see Form UC-44FR, Request for Relief from Charges, which is mailed to base-year employers with the Form UC-44F.)

(3) Benefits charged to employer’s reserve account. Benefits charged to the reserve account of the employer as shown on Form UC-640, Monthly Notice of Compensation Charged, are incorrect.

(i) Questions regarding the accuracy of benefit charges on Form UC-640, shall be resolved conclusively under section 301(e)(1) of the law (43 P. S. § 781(e)(1)).

(ii) Protests contesting the accuracy of the charges shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed in the law and this subpart. (For detailed instructions, see Form UC-640, Monthly Notice of Compensation Charged, which is mailed to base-year employers following the payment of unemployment compensation to their former employees.)

(4) Reserve account balance. The reserve account balance as indicated on the Contribution Rate Notice is inaccurate, if the alleged inaccuracy is attributable to an error that occurred more than 4 years prior to the computation date for the contribution rate in question.

(5) Payment plan default. The rate of contribution assigned after the employer defaults on a deferred payment plan is incorrect for reasons unrelated to the payment plan or the default.

(i) Under section 301(a)(2) of the law, an employer that is delinquent in the payment of contributions, interest or penalty is assigned a rate of contribution that is the sum of 3% plus the employer’s rate as otherwise determined. However, if the employer is complying with a deferred payment plan, section 301(a)(2) of the law provides that the Department will issue a rate of contribution that does not include the additional 3%. If the employer defaults on the payment plan, section 301(a)(2) of the law provides that the employer’s contribution rate or rates for the period of the payment plan are retroactively revised to include the additional 3%.

(ii) If an employer with a deferred payment plan is assigned a rate that does not include the additional 3% and the employer is dissatisfied with the assigned rate, the employer is responsible to timely contest the assigned rate. If an employer defaults on a payment plan and the employer’s rate is revised to include the additional 3%, an application for review and redetermination of contribution rate filed in response to the rate revision is limited to the issue of whether a default on the payment plan occurred.

(b) An application for review and redetermination of contribution rate will not be disapproved under this section while the issues of benefit eligibility or charge relief are pending under the provisions specified, neither shall the application be disapproved pending such proceedings. In those cases, the employer’s application shall be held in abeyance until final resolution of the issue of eligibility or relief from charges.

§ 63.24. Unacceptable applications.
(a) The Department will deny the following applications for review and redetermination of contribution rate:
   (1) Applications which are not timely filed under § 63.21(1) (relating to notification of rate and prerequisites for applications for review and redetermination).
   (2) Applications based upon the reasons in § 63.23 (relating to unacceptable reasons).
(b) The Department may deny applications for review and redetermination of contribution rate which do not furnish the information required in § 63.21(b)(2) or 63.22 (relating to supporting data).
(c) If an application is denied under this section, the Department will inform the employer and advise the employer of the reasons for the denial.
