§ 1249.2. Definitions.

The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Home health agency—A public or private agency or organization, or part of an agency or organization that is licensed by the Commonwealth and certified for participation in Medicare. The agency shall be staffed and equipped to provide skilled nursing care and at least one therapeutic service—physical therapy, occupational therapy or speech pathology—or home health aides to a disabled, aged, injured or sick recipient on a part-time or intermittent basis in his residence.

Home health services—Nursing services, home health aide services, physical therapy, occupational therapy or speech pathology and audiology services provided by a home health agency and medical supplies, equipment and appliances suitable for use in the home. For the purpose of this chapter, medical supplies, equipment and appliances do not include dentures, prosthetic devices, orthoses or eyeglasses.

Residence—A place where the recipient makes his home.

(i) The term includes a personal care home, a hospice, a relative's home or a friend's home.

(ii) The term does not include a hospital, skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility.

§ 1249.42. Ongoing responsibilities of providers.

Ongoing responsibilities of providers are established in Chapter 1101 (relating to general provisions). The home health agency shall:

(1) Have written policies concerning the acceptance of recipients and the feasibility of meeting the recipient's needs in the home care setting, which include, but are not limited to:

(i) An evaluation visit in the recipient's residence to consider the physical facilities available, attitudes of family members and the availability of family members to help in the care of the patient.

(ii) Assessment and documentation of the need for home health agency services.

(2) Establish a plan of care for the recipient that does the following:

(i) Specifies the types of services required.

(ii) Provides long range projection of likely changes in the recipient's condition.

(iii) Includes the diagnosis and a description of the recipient's functional limitations.

§ 1249.52. Payment conditions for various services.

(a) Home health agencies are reimbursed for services furnished to MA recipients within the MA Program Fee Schedule limits if the following conditions are met and documented in the recipient's medical record:

(1) The services are ordered by and included in the plan of treatment established by the recipient's attending physician.

(2) The attending physician certifies that the recipient requires care in the home and one of the following conditions exist:

(i) The specific home health services would avoid or delay the need for treatment in a hospital or other institutional setting for the condition being treated.

(ii) The recipient has an illness, injury or mental health condition that justifies providing the services at the recipient's residence instead of a physician's office, clinic or other outpatient setting.

(3) The attending physician certifies that the recipient requires the skilled services of a nurse, physical therapist, occupational therapist or speech therapist or the services of a home health aide.

(4) A change in the treatment plan is made in writing and signed by the physician, or if given orally, is put in writing and signed by the health care professional receiving the oral order on behalf of the agency. The order shall be countersigned by the physician within 30 days of the physician's order. The following health care professionals may receive oral orders from the physician:

(i) Registered nurses.

(ii) Licensed practical nurses.

(iii) Physical therapists, occupational therapists and speech therapists. These health care professionals may only receive oral orders that pertain to these specialties.

(5) The plan is reviewed by the attending physician, in consultation with agency professional personnel at least every 60 days. The review of the recipient's plan must contain the signature of the attending physician and the date the review was performed.

(6) The Department has prior authorized the services.

(b) Home health agencies are reimbursed for the following services furnished to MA recipients:

(1) Skilled nursing care.

(2) Home health aide services.

(3) Physical and occupational therapy.

(4) Speech pathology and audiology services.

(5) Medical/surgical supplies listed in the MA Program Fee Schedule.

formed by a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse if not provided in conjunction with skilled services.

(3) The services are reasonable and necessary to the treatment of an illness or injury. To be considered reasonable and necessary, the services furnished shall be:

(i) Consistent with the recipient's particular medical needs as determined by the recipient's attending physician.

(ii) Consistent with accepted standards of medical practice.

(b) Skilled nursing care includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) Observation and evaluation.

(2) Teaching and training the recipient or family members to provide care such as, but not limited to:

(i) Giving an injection.

(ii) Irrigating a catheter.

(iii) Applying dressings to wounds involving prescription medications and aseptic techniques.

(iv) Teaching the proper use of medications.

(3) Insertion and sterile irrigation of catheters.

(4) Bladder training.

(5) Administering injections.

(6) Administering enteral and intravenous total parenteral nutrition.

(7) Treating decubitus ulcers and other skin disorders.

(c) Activities, such as the administration of eye drops, topical ointments, bathing the skin and applying creams do not constitute skilled care.

§ 1249.54. Payment conditions for home health aide services.

(a) Home health aide service is a covered home health service and is reimbursable under the MA Program if the following conditions are met:

(1) The services of a home health aide are given in conjunction with skilled care or, when skilled care is not needed, when personal care services are medically necessary.

(2) The recipient record contains documentation that, at least every 2 weeks, there has been communication between the home health aide and a supervisory nurse regarding the recipient.

(3) The assignment of a home health aide to a case shall be made in accordance with a written plan of treatment established by the recipient's attending physician. The plan shall indicate the recipient's need for personal care services. The specific personal care services to be furnished by the home health aide shall be determined by a registered nurse and not by the home health aide. If skilled care is not required, the recipient's attending physician shall certify that the personal care services furnished are medically necessary.

(b) Personal care services that may be performed by a home health aide include, but are not limited to, assisting the recipient with the following:

(1) Bathing and personal hygiene.

(2) Ambulation and transfer.

(3) Exercise.

(4) Administering medications specifically ordered by a physician that are ordinarily self-administered.

(5) Retraining the recipient in necessary self-help skills.

(c) Domestic and housekeeping services which are unrelated to recipient care are not covered home health services. For example, the services include the following:

(1) Vacuuming, dusting, floor mopping, kitchen and bathroom maintenance.

(2) Washing, ironing and mending clothes.

(3) Child care.

§ 1249.59. Limitations on payment.

The following limits apply to payment for covered services:

(1) Only one fee will be paid per home health agency visit. Payment for a visit pertains to a separate service, by a separate caregiver, to a recipient. More than one visit can be billed to the same recipient on the same day but only for separate care.

(2) After the first 28 days of unlimited home health care, payment is limited to the number of home visits specified on the MA Program Fee Schedule. A new period of unlimited care begins following hospitalization, the onset of a new primary diagnosis or the exacerbation of an existing diagnosis which causes a change in the recipient's condition and requires a change in the plan of treatment, subject to § 1249.52(a)(4) (relating to payment conditions for various services).

(3) For prenatal and postpartum care, the following limits apply:

(i) Payment for prenatal care is limited to the number of visits specified on the MA Program Fee Schedule. Complications of pregnancy are not counted as prenatal care but are classified for invoicing purposes as acute illness.

(ii) Payment for a postpartum visit includes payment for care provided the newborn child.

(4) Payment for hypodermic or intramuscular therapy provided during a home visit is included in the visit fee. If this service is provided during a recipient's visit to the home health agency, the agency will be paid at the rate specified in the MA Program Fee Schedule.
