GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 6500.1. Introduction.

Family living is based on the importance of enduring and permanent relationships as the foundation for learning life skills, developing self-esteem and learning to exist in interdependence with others; the opportunity for each individual with an intellectual disability to grow and develop to their fullest potential; the provision of individualized attention based on the needs of the individual with an intellectual disability; and the participation of the individual with an intellectual disability in everyday community activities. Family living offers an opportunity for an individual with an intellectual disability and a family to share their lives together.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

§ 6500.11. Licensure or approval of facilities and agencies.

The requirements specified in Chapter 20 (relating to licensure or approval of facilities and agencies) shall be met.

§ 6500.12. Waivers.

A waiver of a specific section, subsection or paragraph of this chapter may be requested by writing to the appropriate Deputy Secretary of the Department. A waiver will be considered if the following criteria are met.

1. The waiver does not jeopardize the health, safety or well-being of any of the individuals in the home.
2. The waiver is based on the best interests and needs of the individuals.
3. Noncompliance with the regulation is of greater benefit to the individuals than compliance with the regulation.
4. There is an alternative method for meeting the intent of the regulation.
5. There are special circumstances that make this home different from other homes complying with the regulation.
6. The waiver does not violate any other State regulation or statute.
7. The waiver is not requested for §§ 6500.1—6500.4 (relating to general provisions).

The maximum capacity specified on the certificate of compliance may not be exceeded.

§ 6500.15. Responsibility for compliance.
(a) If an agency is the legal entity administering the family living home, the agency is responsible for compliance with this chapter.

(b) If the family living home is the legal entity, the family living home is responsible for compliance with this chapter.

§ 6500.16. Fire safety occupancy permit.
If the home is located outside the cities of Philadelphia, Scranton and Pittsburgh and is located in a multiple family dwelling, the home shall have a valid fire safety occupancy permit listing the appropriate type of occupancy from the Department of Labor and Industry. If the home is located in the cities of Philadelphia, Scranton or Pittsburgh, the home shall have a valid fire safety occupancy permit from the Department of Public Safety of the city of Pittsburgh, the Department of Licensing and Inspection of the city of Philadelphia or the Department of Community Development of the city of Scranton, if required by local codes.

6500-9
§ 6500.17. Self-assessment of homes.

(a) If an agency is the legal entity for the family living home, the agency shall complete a self-assessment of each home the agency is licensed to operate within 3 to 6 months prior to the expiration date of the agency’s certificate of compliance, to measure and record compliance with this chapter.

(b) The agency shall use the Department’s licensing inspection instrument for this chapter to measure and record compliance.

(c) A copy of the agency’s self-assessment results and a written summary of corrections made shall be kept for at least 1 year.

§ 6500.18. Abuse.

Abuse of an individual is prohibited. Abuse is an act or omission of an act that willfully deprives an individual of rights or human dignity or which may cause or causes actual physical injury or emotional harm to an individual, such as striking or kicking an individual; neglect; rape, sexual molestation, sexual exploitation or sexual harrassment of an individual; sexual contact between a family member or an agency staff person and an individual; restraining an individual without following the requirements in this chapter; financial exploitation of an individual; humiliating an individual; or withholding regularly scheduled meals.

Abuse or suspected abuse of an individual 17 years of age or younger shall be immediately reported to ChildLine at 1 (800) 932-0313.

§ 6500.20. Reporting of unusual incidents.

(a) An unusual incident is abuse or suspected abuse of an individual; injury, trauma or illness of an individual requiring inpatient hospitalization; suicide attempt by an individual; violation or alleged violation of an individual’s rights; an individual who is missing for more than 24 hours or could be in jeopardy if missing at all; misuse or alleged misuse of individual funds or property; outbreak of a serious communicable disease as defined in 28 Pa. Code § 27.2 (relating to specific identified reportable diseases, infections and conditions); or an incident requiring the services of a fire department or law enforcement agency.

(b) Written policies and procedures on the prevention, reporting, investigation and management of unusual incidents shall be kept.

(c) Oral notification of the county intellectual disability program of the county in which the home is located, the funding agency if applicable, and the appropriate regional office of the Department shall be given within 24 hours after abuse or suspected abuse of an individual or an incident requiring the services of a fire department or law enforcement agency occurs.

(d) An investigation of the unusual incident shall be initiated and an unusual incident report shall be completed on a form specified by the Department. Copies of the unusual incident report shall be sent to the county intellectual disability program of the county in which the home is located, the funding agency if applicable, and the appropriate regional office of the Department, within 72 hours after an unusual incident occurs.

(e) A copy of the final unusual incident report shall be sent to the county intellectual disability program of the county in which the home is located, the funding agency if applicable, and the appropriate regional office of the Department at the conclusion of the investigation.

(f) A copy of unusual incident reports relating to an individual shall be kept in the individual’s record.

(g) A copy of unusual incident reports relating to the home itself, such as those requiring the services of a fire department, shall be kept.

(h) The individual’s family or guardian shall be immediately notified in the event of an unusual incident relating to the individual, if appropriate.

§ 6500.24. Individual funds and property.

(a) There shall be a written policy that establishes procedures for the protection and adequate accounting of individual funds and property and for advising the individual concerning the use of funds and property.

(b) The policy may not prohibit or interfere with the individual’s right to manage the individual’s own finances.

(c) An individual’s funds and property shall be used for the individual’s benefit.
(d) An up-to-date financial and property record shall be kept for each individual that includes the following:

1. Personal possessions and funds received by or deposited with the family or agency.
2. Disbursements made to or for the individual.

(e) If the agency or family assumes the responsibility for an individual’s financial resources, the following shall be maintained for each individual:

1. A separate record of financial resources including the dates and amounts of deposits and withdrawals.
2. For a withdrawal when the individual is given the money directly, the record shall indicate that funds were given directly to the individual.
3. Documentation, by actual receipt or expense record, of each single purchase exceeding $15 made on behalf of the individual carried out by family members or agency staff.

(f) There may not be commingling of the individual’s personal funds with agency or household funds.

(g) There may not be borrowing of the individual’s personal funds by family members or agency staff.

§ 6500.152. Development, annual update and revision of the ISP.

(a) An individual shall have one ISP.

(b) When an individual is not receiving services through an SCO, the family living program specialist shall be the plan lead when one of the following applies:

   (1) The individual resides at a family living home licensed under this chapter.

   (2) The individual resides at a family living home licensed under this chapter and attends a facility licensed under Chapter 2380 or 2390 (relating to adult training facilities; and vocational facilities).

(c) The plan lead shall be responsible for developing and implementing the ISP, including annual updates and revisions.

(d) The plan lead shall develop, update and revise the ISP according to the following:

   (1) The ISP shall be initially developed, updated annually and revised based upon the individual’s current assessments as required under §§ 2380.181, 2390.151, 6400.181 and 6500.151 (relating to assessment).

   (2) The initial ISP shall be developed within 90 calendar days after the individual’s admission date to the family living home.

   (3) The ISP, annual updates and revisions shall be documented on the Department-designated form located in the Home and Community Services Information System (HCSIS) and also on the Department’s web site.

   (4) An invitation shall be sent to plan team members at least 30 calendar days prior to an ISP meeting.

§ 6500.153. Content of the ISP.

The ISP, including annual updates and revisions under § 6500.156 (relating to ISP review and revision) must include the following:

(1) Services provided to the individual and expected outcomes chosen by the individual and individual’s plan team.

(2) Services provided to the individual to increase community involvement, including volunteer or civic-minded opportunities and membership in National or local organizations as required under § 6500.158 (relating to provider services).

(3) Current status in relation to an outcome and method of evaluation used to determine progress toward that expected outcome.

(4) A protocol and schedule outlining specified periods of time for the individual to be without direct supervision, if the individual’s current assessment states the individual may be without direct supervision and if the individual’s ISP includes an expected outcome which requires the achievement of a higher level of independence. The protocol must include the current level of independence and the method of evaluation used to determine progress toward the expected outcome to achieve the higher level of independence.

(5) A protocol to address the social, emotional and environmental needs of the individual, if medication has been prescribed to treat symptoms of a diagnosed psychiatric illness.

(6) A protocol to eliminate the use of restrictive procedures, if restrictive procedures are utilized, and to address the underlying causes of the behavior which led to the use of restrictive procedures including the following:

(i) An assessment to determine the causes or antecedents of the behavior.

(ii) A protocol for addressing the underlying causes or antecedents of the behavior.

(iii) The method and time line for eliminating the use of restrictive procedures.

(iv) A protocol for intervention or redirection without utilizing restrictive procedures.

(7) Assessment of the individual’s potential to advance in the following:

(i) Residential independence.

(ii) Community involvement.

(iii) Vocational programming.
(iv) Competitive community-integrated employment.

§ 6500.156. ISP review and revision.

(a) The family living specialist shall complete an ISP review of the services and expected outcomes in the ISP specific to the family living home licensed under this chapter with the individual every 3 months or more frequently if the individual’s needs change, which impacts the services as specified in the current ISP.

(b) The family living specialist and individual shall sign and date the ISP review signature sheet upon review of the ISP.

(c) The ISP review must include the following:

   (1) A review of the monthly documentation of an individual’s participation and progress during the prior 3 months toward ISP outcomes supported by services provided by the family living home licensed under this chapter.

   (2) A review of each section of the ISP specific to the family living home licensed under this chapter.

   (3) The family living specialist shall document a change in the individual’s needs, if applicable.

   (4) The family living specialist shall make a recommendation regarding the following, if applicable:

      (i) The deletion of an outcome or service to support the achievement of an outcome which is no longer appropriate or has been completed.

      (ii) The addition of an outcome or service to support the achievement of an outcome.

      (iii) The modification of an outcome or service to support the achievement of an outcome in which no progress has been made.

   (5) If making a recommendation to revise a service or outcome in the ISP, the family living specialist shall complete a revised assessment as required under § 6500.151(b) (relating to assessment).

(d) The family living specialist shall provide the ISP review documentation, including recommendations if applicable, to the SC, as applicable, and plan team members within 30 calendar days after the ISP review meeting.

(e) The family living specialist shall notify the plan team members of the option to decline the ISP review documentation.

(f) If a recommendation for a revision to a service or outcome in the ISP is made, the plan lead as applicable, under §§ 2380.182(b) and (c), 2390.152(b) and (c), 6400.182(b) and (c), 6500.152(b) and (c) (relating to development, annual... update and revision of the ISP), shall send an invitation for an ISP revision meeting to the plan team members within 30 calendar days of receipt of the recommendation.

(g) A revised service or outcome in the ISP shall be implemented by the start date in the ISP as written.

RESTRICTIVE PROCEDURES

§ 6500.161. Definition of restrictive procedures.
A restrictive procedure is a practice that limits an individual’s movement, activity of function; interferes with an individual’s ability to acquire positive reinforcement; results in the loss of objects or activities that an individual values; or requires an individual to engage in a behavior that the individual would not engage in given freedom of choice.

§ 6500.162. Written policy.
A written policy that defines the prohibition or use of specific types of restrictive procedures, describes the circumstances in which restrictive procedures may be used, the persons who may authorize the use of restrictive procedures, a mechanism to monitor and control the use of restrictive procedures, and a process for the individual and family to review the use of restrictive procedures shall be kept.

§ 6500.163. Appropriate use of restrictive procedures.
(a) A restrictive procedure may not be used as retribution, for the convenience of the family, as a substitute for the program or in a way that interferes with the individual’s developmental program.
(b) For each incident requiring restrictive procedures:
(1) Every attempt shall be made to anticipate and de-escalate the behavior using methods of intervention less intrusive than restrictive procedures.
(2) A restrictive procedure may not be used unless less restrictive techniques and resources appropriate to the behavior have been tried but have failed.

§ 6500.164. Restrictive procedure review committee.
(a) If restrictive procedures are used, there shall be a restrictive procedure review committee.
(b) The restrictive procedure review committee shall include a majority of persons who do not provide direct services to the individual.
(c) The restrictive procedure review committee shall establish a time frame for review and revision of the restrictive procedure plan, not to exceed 6 months between reviews.

(d) A written record of the meetings and activities of the restrictive procedure review committee shall be kept.

Cross References

This section cited in 55 Pa. Code § 6500.174 (relating to emergency use of exclusion and manual restraints).

§ 6500.165. Restrictive procedure plan.

(a) For each individual for whom restrictive procedures may be used, a restrictive procedure plan shall be written prior to the use of restrictive procedures.

(b) The restrictive procedure plan shall be developed and revised with the participation of the family living specialist, the family, the interdisciplinary team as appropriate and other professionals as appropriate.

(c) The restrictive procedure plan shall be reviewed, and revised if necessary, according to the time frame established by the restrictive procedure review committee, not to exceed 6 months.

(d) The restrictive procedure plan shall be reviewed, approved, signed and dated by the chairperson of the restrictive procedure review committee and the family living specialist, prior to the use of a restrictive procedure, whenever the restrictive procedure plan is revised and at least every 6 months.

(e) The restrictive procedure plan shall include:

   (1) The specific behavior to be addressed and the suspected antecedent or reason for the behavior.
   (2) The single behavioral outcome desired stated in measurable terms.
   (3) Methods for modifying or eliminating the behavior, such as changes in the individual’s physical and social environment, changes in the individual’s routine, improving communications, teaching skills and reinforcing appropriate behavior.
   (4) Types of restrictive procedures that may be used and the circumstances under which the procedures may be used.
   (5) A target date for achieving the outcome.
   (6) The amount of time the restrictive procedure may be applied, not to exceed the maximum time periods specified in this chapter.
   (7) Physical problems that require special attention during the use of restrictive procedures.
   (8) The name of the person responsible for monitoring and documenting progress with the plan.

(f) The restrictive procedure plan shall be implemented as written.
(g) Copies of the restrictive procedure plan shall be kept in the individual’s record.

Cross References
This section cited in 55 Pa. Code § 6500.174 (relating to emergency use of exclusion and manual restraints).

§ 6500.166. Training.
(a) If a restrictive procedure is used, there shall be at least one person available when restrictive procedures are used who has completed training within the past 12 months in the use of and ethics of using restrictive procedures including the use of alternate positive approaches.
(b) Persons responsible for developing, implementing or managing a restrictive procedure plan shall be trained in the use of the specific techniques or procedures that are used.
(c) If manual restraint or exclusion is used, persons responsible for developing, implementing or managing a restrictive procedure plan shall have experienced the use of the specific techniques or procedures directly on themselves.
(d) Documentation of the training program provided, including the persons trained, dates of training, description of training and training source shall be kept.

§ 6500.167. Seclusion.
Seclusion, defined as placing an individual in a locked room, is prohibited. A locked room includes a room with any type of door locking device, such as a key lock, spring lock, bolt lock, foot pressure lock or physically holding the door shut.

§ 6500.168. Aversive conditioning.
The use of aversive conditioning, defined as the application, contingent upon the exhibition of maladaptive behavior, of startling, painful or noxious stimuli, is prohibited.

§ 6500.169. Chemical restraints.
(a) A chemical restraint is a drug used to control acute, episodic behavior that restricts the movement or function of an individual.
(b) Administration of a chemical restraint is prohibited except for the administration of drugs ordered by a licensed physician on an emergency basis.
(c) If a chemical restraint is administered as specified in subsection (b) the following apply:
   (1) Prior to each incidence of administering a drug on an emergency basis, a licensed physician has examined the individual and has given a written order to administer the drug.
Prior to each readministration of a drug on an emergency basis, a licensed physician has examined the individual and has ordered readministration of the drug.

(d) If a chemical restraint is administered as specified in subsection (c) the following apply:
   (1) The individual’s vital signs shall be monitored at least once each hour.
   (2) The physical needs of the individual shall be met promptly.
   (3) A Pro Re Nata (PRN) order for controlling acute, episodic behavior is prohibited.

(e) A drug ordered by a licensed physician as part of an ongoing program of medication is not a chemical restraint.

(f) A drug ordered by a licensed physician for a specific, time-limited stressful event or situation to assist the individual to control the individual’s behavior, is not a chemical restraint.

(g) A drug ordered by a licensed physician as pretreatment prior to medical or dental examination or treatment is not a chemical restraint.

(h) A drug self-administered by an individual is not a chemical restraint.

(i) If a drug is administered in accordance with subsection (b), (e), (f) or (g), there shall be training for the individual aimed at eliminating or reducing the need for the drug in the future.

(j) Documentation of compliance with subsections (b)—(h) shall be kept.

§ 6500.170. Mechanical restraints.

(a) A mechanical restraint is a device used to control acute, episodic behavior that restricts the movement or function of an individual or portion of an individual’s body. Examples of mechanical restraints include anklets, wristlets, camisoles, helmets with fasteners, muffs and mitts with fasteners, poseys, waist straps, head straps, restraining sheets and similar devices.

(b) The use of a mechanical restraint is prohibited except for use of helmets, mitts and muffs to prevent self-injury on an interim basis not to exceed 3 months after an individual is admitted to the home.

(c) If a mechanical restraint is used as specified in subsection (b), the following apply:
   (1) The use of a mechanical restraint may not exceed 2 hours, unless a licensed physician examines the individual and gives written orders to continue use of the restraint. Reexamination and new orders by a licensed physician are required for each 2-hour period the restraint is continued. If a restraint is removed for a purpose other than for movement and reused within 24 hours after the initial use of the restraint, it is considered continuation of the initial restraint.
   (2) A licensed physician shall be notified immediately after a mechanical restraint is used.
   (3) The restraint shall be checked for proper fit at least every 15 minutes.
(4) The physical needs of the individual shall be met promptly.
(5) The restraint shall be removed completely for at least 10 minutes during every 2 hours the restraint is used, unless the individual is sleeping.
(6) There shall be training for the individual aimed at eliminating or reducing the need for the restraint in the future.
(7) Documentation of compliance with subsections (b) and paragraphs (1)—(6) shall be kept.
(d) A device used to provide support for functional body position or proper balance and a device used for medical treatment, such as sand bags to limit movement after medical treatment, a wheelchair belt that is used for body positioning and support or a helmet for prevention of injury during seizure activity, are not considered mechanical restraints.

§ 6500.171. Use of personal funds and property.
(a) An individual’s personal funds or property may not be used as reward or punishment.
(b) An individual’s personal funds or property may not be used as payment for damages unless the individual consents to make restitution for the damages.

(a) Manual restraint is defined as a physical hands-on technique that lasts more than 30 seconds, used to control acute, episodic behavior that restricts the movement or functions of an individual or portion of an individual’s body such as basket holds and prone or supine containment.
(b) Manual restraint shall be used only when necessary to protect the individual from injuring himself or others.
(c) Manual restraint shall be used only when it has been documented that other less restrictive methods have been unsuccessful in protecting the individual from injuring himself or others.
(d) An individual shall be released from the manual restraint within the time specified in the restrictive procedure plan not to exceed 30 minutes within any 2 hour period.

§ 6500.173. Exclusion.
(a) Exclusion is the removal of an individual from the individual’s immediate environment and restricting the individual alone to a room or area. If a family member remains with the individual it is not exclusion.
(b) Exclusion shall be used only when necessary to protect the individual from self-injury or injury to others.
(c) Exclusion shall only occur when it has been documented that other less restrictive methods have been unsuccessful in protecting the individual from self-injury or injury to others.
(d) An individual shall be permitted to return to routine activity within the time specified in the restrictive procedure plan not to exceed 60 minutes within a 2-hour period.

(e) Exclusion may not be used for an individual more than 4 times within a 24-hour period.

(f) An individual in exclusion shall be monitored continually.

(g) A room or area used for exclusion shall be a routine living space with at least 40 square feet of indoor floor space.

If exclusion or manual restraints are used on an unanticipated, emergency basis, §§ 6500.164 and 6500.165 (relating to restrictive procedure review committee; and restrictive procedure plan) do not apply until after the exclusion or manual restraint is used for the same individual twice in a 6-month period.

§ 6500.175. Restrictive procedure records.

A record of each use of a restrictive procedure documenting the specific behavior addressed, methods of intervention used to address the behavior, the date and time the restrictive procedure was used, the specific procedures followed, the person who used the restrictive procedure, the duration of the restrictive procedure and the individual’s condition following the removal from the restrictive procedure shall be kept in the individual’s record.

§ 6500.176. Notification.

The individual’s day service facility shall be sent copies of the restrictive procedure plan and revisions of the plan. Documentation of transmittal of the restrictive procedure plan shall be kept.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

§ 6500.181. Emergency information.

(a) Emergency information for an individual shall be easily accessible at the home.

(b) Emergency information for an individual shall include the following:

1. The name, address, telephone number and relationship of a designated person to be contacted in case of emergency.

2. The name, address and telephone number of the individual’s physician or source of health care.
