333.

§ 807.2. Filing reports of transactions.
All lottery sales agents shall file with the Bureau, or its designated agents, reports of their receipts and transactions in the sale of lottery tickets in such form and containing such information as it may require. In this connection, agents shall refer to procedures and instructions to authorized agents, made available to agents by the Bureau.

§ 807.3. Agents responsible for tickets.
All tickets accepted by an agent from the State lottery or its authorized representatives shall be deemed to have been purchased by the agent, unless returned to the bank from which they were obtained within the time specified, and the purchase price shall be paid to the State lottery, less the appropriate commission discount, if any. The agent shall be responsible for lost or missing tickets or loose tickets not returned in sequential order.
