Tickets that are not accounted for by the agent on the settlement date, regardless of the reason, shall be deemed sold to the agent. Reference should be made to § 807.3 (relating to agents responsible for tickets).

§ 809.22. Assignment of agent to bank.
After an application by an agent has been accepted and approved by the Bureau, the agent shall be licensed and assigned to a bank. The bank shall be notified of the authorization of the agent at the same time the agent receives notice of his assignment.

The agent shall notify the bank and the Bureau of the names and addresses of one or several persons, over the age of 21 years, in his business who are authorized to request and receive delivery of tickets from the assigned safekeeping bank. The Bureau reserves the right to disallow such participation of any person so authorized by an agent. The employee or such person shall identify himself to the bank by the identification card of his agent before receiving tickets. The agent shall be restricted to his assigned bank for the purpose of conducting his lottery activities.
